

May 01, 2008

Dear Patient,

This letter is being sent to inform you that Tracy A. Lowery, M.D., will be leaving Tennessee Valley Vascular Consultants, P.C. as of Friday, May 30, 2008. Dr. Lowery has cervical spine problems forcing him to give up performing surgery for the present time.

Drs. Ron C. Johnson and Fred S. Stucky, III remain available at Tennessee Valley Vascular Consultants, P.C. and will continue to provide vascular surgery services for you, if you choose.

Those patients who have scheduled appointments with Dr. Lowery will receive a telephone call from our office before the date of the appointment. For those patients choosing to see Dr. Johnson or Dr. Stucky, an alternate appointment will be made.

Patients who have been cared for primarily by Dr. Lowery who wish to transfer to another vascular doctor will have their records transferred to that office by signing an authorization form to release the records. Please notify this office by mail, e-mail or telephone and allow several days for the transaction.

Our office will make every effort to accommodate all patients previously seen at Tennessee Valley Vascular Consultants, P.C. Please remain patient with us and notify us if you have any questions or concerns.

We consider it an honor to provide services to you, our patients.

Sincerely,

Ron C. Johnson, M.D.
Fred S. Stucky, III, M.D.
