

TENNESSEE VALLEY VASCULAR CONSULTANTS, P.C.

May 01, 2008

This on-line message is to inform you that Tracy A. Lowery, M.D., will be leaving Tennessee Valley Vascular Consultants, P.C. as of Friday, May 30, 2008. Dr. Lowery has cervical spine problems forcing him to give up performing surgery for the present time.

Drs. Ron C. Johnson and Fred S. Stucky, III remain available at Tennessee Valley Vascular Consultants, P.C. and will continue to provide vascular surgery services for you, if you choose.

Summary

Patients with an appointment already scheduled with Dr. Lowery:

- Wait for a telephone call from our office. Alternate plans will be made.
- Call with any questions or concerns in the interim before your appointment.

Former patients of Dr. Lowery without a scheduled appointment:

- Notify our office as previously.

Patients who wish to transfer their medical records to another vascular surgeon:

- Notify our office to sign an authorization form to release the records. Allow several days for the transaction.

We consider it an honor to provide services to you, our patients.
